- j) Generally to do all other acts and things necessary or incidental to the proper day-to-day management of the institutions and establishments maintained and/or conducted by the Trust.

39. No act of the Managing Trustee requiring the previous sanction of the Board shall be invalid merely by reason of the absence of such previous sanction, if the said act should subsequently be ratified by the Board.

40. The Managing Trustee and the other Trustees may reimburse themselves, or pay or reimburse out of the Trust moneys in their hands, all expenses properly incurred by them in or about the execution of the Trust and/or in the discharge of the duties imposed on them under this Trust.

41. There shall be an Annual Meeting of the Board when the Annual Audited statements of accounts shall be considered and adopted. The Managing Trustee shall, at such meeting, place before the Board a report of the working of the several institutions conducted and maintained by the Trust. The Managing Trustee shall give at least 14 days' written notice of the meeting of the Trustees specifying the day, date, place, time and agenda of the meeting. Along with the notice, the Managing Trustee shall also send to each one of the Trustees a copy of the audited statements of accounts intended to be placed before the meeting.

42. The Board shall consider at the said meeting the report of the Managing Trustee and that of the Auditor and the audited accounts and, if the Board proceeds to approve and adopt them, such approval and adoption shall be by means of a resolution to that effect.

The Board shall also transact such other business at that meeting about which due notice had been given as aforesaid. All the resolutions passed by the Board shall be recorded in a separate book. Any one of the Trustees may be appointed to preside at the meeting.

43. Any trustee, for the time being of the Trust, may call a meeting of the Board for the consideration of any specific subject or subjects to be mentioned by the Trustee convening the meeting of the Board. There shall be a notice of at least 14 days for every meeting so convened. The posting of a prepaid letter to the proper address of a Trustee and containing the date, day, time, place and the agenda of the meeting shall be deemed to be a proper notice of the meeting and such notice shall be deemed to have been served on the day on which the letter so posted would reach the addressee in the usual course of post. A notice may also be served on a Trustee in person.

44. The quorum for a meeting of the Board shall be four.

45. The business of the Board shall be transacted either at the meeting of the Board or by resolutions passed in circulation. The paper containing the resolutions shall be sent to all the Trustees and the resolutions so circulated shall be deemed to have been passed only when a majority of the Trustees signify their consent thereto in writing.

46. Except to the extent otherwise expressly provided herein, in all matters pertaining to the Trust, the decision of a majority of the Trustees shall be the decision of the Board and shall be binding on all the members of the Board. Filling in vacancies in the office of a Trustee, shall be deemed to be matters pertaining to the Trust within the meaning of, and be governed by this clause.

47. In the event of the votes being equally divided, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his vote as a Member of the Board.

48. No act or resolution of the Board shall be invalid merely by reason of their being one or more vacancies in the Board. But no act or resolution of the Board, other than an act or resolution appointing or electing a Trustee for the purpose of securing the minimum number of Trustees prescribed by clause (3) above, shall be valid if the strength of the Board at any time is less than the minimum prescribed under clause 3.

49. No act or proceedings of the Board or of the Managing Trustee or of any Trustee shall be deemed to be invalid by reason only of any defect in the appointment or the constitution of the Board or of any member thereof or on the ground that any member of the Board was not entitled to hold or continue in office by reason of any disqualification or by reason of any irregularity in his appointment or by reason of such act having been done or proceeding taken during the period of any vacancy in the office of Managing Trustee or of any other Trustee.

50. The Trustees shall conform to the provisions of the Indian Trusts Act 1882, in all matters not expressly provided for herein; but, in case any difficulty or doubt arises on any question in respect of the management or administration of the Trust or any matters falling hereunder, the Managing Trustee may, on behalf of the Board, apply to the Court for opinion, advice, direction or order and the Trustees acting upon the directions, if any of the Court shall be deemed, so far as regards their responsibility to have discharged their duties in respect thereof.

51. The Board is hereby authorized to, and it may, from time to time, make and prescribe additional rules and regulations for and in connection with the carrying out of the objects of the Trust, or for and in connection with the management of any of the institutions established, maintained or run by or under the Trust hereby created.
